

IJCAI 2011

Barcelona,
July 16-22, 2010

TOURS AND EXCURSIONS

grupopacífico

gp

GRUPO PACIFICO

Mariá Cubí, 4

08006 Barcelona.

Tel: 34.93.238.87.77– Fax: 34.93.238.74.88

IJCAI 2011 Conference delegates and accompanying guests will have the opportunity to enjoy their free time with several tours organised with private bus and official guide speaking English. Visit the Montserrat Monastery and its magic natural surroundings, take a glass of the one of the most legendaries cavas at Codorniu Cellars and enjoy a sunny walk in Sitges, learn about Modernism Architecture around Barcelona and the city's interesting history or visit the museums of two of the most famous painters of the world: Dali and Picasso.

Tours must be reserved online during the registration process. A minimum of registrations is required and, according to final numbers, the definitive tours will be confirmed on June 1st 2011.

Check the tours' offer at <http://ijcai-11.iiia.csic.es/program/tours>.

Half day tours

MONTSERRAT - Tuesday 19/07/2011 - Morning

Situated some sixty kilometres to the west of Barcelona rises Catalonia's sacred mountain of Montserrat. This is a strange jutting mass of rock, smoothed by wind and rain over thousands of years. Clinging to its steep slopes is a Benedictine monastery. A spiritual beacon to the Catalans, the monastery is dedicated to the Black Virgin of Montserrat, the dark-skinned patron saint of Catalonia.

Departure time and place: 09:00h from CCIB

Duration time: approx. 5 hours. Lunch not included.

Rate: 45,00 € (taxes included)

Minimum: 20 people

*Private bus and official guide speaking English

ARTISTIC BARCELONA - Tuesday 19/07/2011 - Morning

Visit to Gaudi's unfinished masterpiece, the Sagrada Familia and the fascinating Güell Park. On the Paseo de Gracia we will see several modernist houses such as the Casa Batlló, Lleó Morera and Casa Milá, also known as the Pedrera.

Departure time and place: 09:00h from CCIB

Duration time: approx. three and a half hours.

Rate: 45,00 € (taxes included)

Minimum: 20 people

*Private bus and official guide speaking English

SITGES - Wednesday 20/07/2011 - Morning

Visit to Sitges, a fashionable beach resort in which one can find a unique blend of sophisticated and plain tourism with one of the highest densities of artists per square meter of the Mediterranean Coast. Artists, such as Rusiñol or Utrillo, already discovered its charm at the end of the XIXth century. The Cau Ferrat Museum, former residence of Rusiñol, and also the Maricel Museum, display beautiful samples of the Catalan modern arts.

Departure time and place: 09:00h from CCIB
Duration time: approx. five hours. Lunch not included.
Rate: 45,00 € (taxes included)
Minimum: 20 people
*Private bus and official guide speaking English

HISTORIC BARCELONA - Wednesday 20/07/2011 - Morning

Visit to the old city center, including the Gothic Quarter, the Cathedral, a panoramic view of the city and the port from Montjuïc and the possibility of visiting the "Pueblo Español" and strolling through its streets and stores which are replicas of many other cities and towns in other parts of Spain. Visit to the Olympic installations.

Departure time and place: 09:00h from CCIB
Duration time: approx. three and a half hours.
Rate: 45,00 € (taxes included)
Minimum: 20 people
*Private bus and official guide speaking English

PICASSO MUSEUM - Thursday 21/07/2011 - Afternoon

Picasso's collection in this museum offers a thorough view of Picasso's earliest work, with some of his schoolbooks' sketches on display, and of his early paintings in Barcelona. Also, many works from later and better known periods can be seen. The collection is housed in two beautifully preserved Gothic Palaces.

Departure time and place: 09:00h from CCIB
Duration time: three hours.
Rate: 40,00 € (taxes included)
Minimum: 20 people
*Private bus and official guide speaking English

Full day Tours

MONASTERY OF SANTES CREUS - Tuesday 19/07/2011 and Saturday 23/07/2011 - Full day

The Monastery of Santes Creus is located about 100 km from Barcelona. It was founded in 1174 by Cistercian monks that came from France and it is a striking example of a convent fortress in Romanesque, Gothic and Baroque styles. Nowadays it is mainly used as a historical library and museum. We take a Catalan typical lunch in Montblanc, medieval village with an interesting wall. In the afternoon visit to Monastery of Poblet, another Cistercian monastery situated in the same area. Return to Barcelona in the afternoon.

Departure time and place: 09:00h from CCIB

Duration time: approx. nine hours. Lunch included

Rate: 90,00 € (taxes included)

Minimum: 20 people

*Private bus and official guide speaking English

DALI MUSEUM - Tuesday 19/07/2011 and Saturday 23/07/2011 - Full day

The old theatre of Figueres, the town where Salvador Dalí was born, is now the "Theatre Museum Dalí". After the museum "El Prado" in Madrid, it is the most visited museum in Spain. It contains paintings, sculptures, drawings and sketches by the artist. It is original and spectacular in keeping with the wonderful personality of the famous surrealist painter. Lunch is included in Roses, beautiful village situated in a bay with 3000 years of history. Free time in the afternoon for a walk to the bay and shopping before returning to Barcelona.

Departure time and place: 09:00h from CCIB

Duration time: approx. eight hours. Lunch included

Rate: 90,00 € (taxes included)

Minimum: 20 people

*Private bus and official guide speaking English

BARCELONA CITY TOUR - Wednesday 20/07/2011 and Saturday 23/07/2011 - Full day

Visit to the old city centre, including the Gothic Quarter, the Cathedral, a panoramic view of the city and the port from Montjuïc and the possibility of visiting the "Pueblo Español" and strolling through its streets and stores which are replicas of many other cities and towns of Spain. In the afternoon, visit to the Olympic installations and Modernist Barcelona: Gaudi's unfinished masterpiece, the Sagrada Familia; the fascinating Güell Park and the Picasso Museum, which exposes works from the artists' different periods and styles. Visit to several modernist houses located in Passeig de Gracia, such as the Casa Batlló, Lleó Morera and Casa Milá, also known as the Pedrera.

Departure time and place: 09:00h from CCIB

Duration time: approx. seven and a half hours. Lunch included.

Rate: 80,00€ (taxes included)

Minimum: 20 people

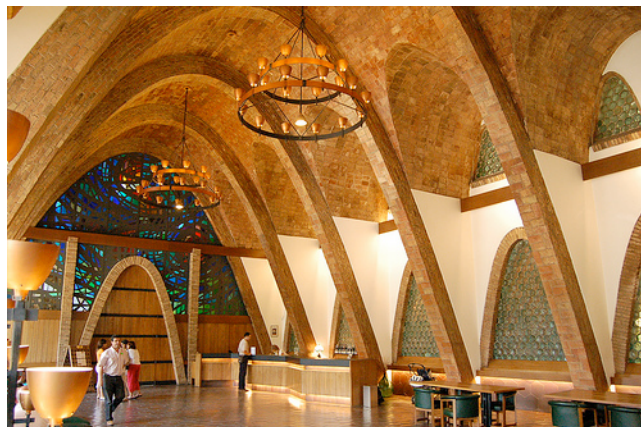

*Private bus and official guide speaking English

CODORNIU CELLARS AND SITGES - Thursday 21/07/2011 and Saturday 23/07/2011 - Full day

This tour includes a visit to the Codorniu winery, a huge centre for the production of cava following the traditional methods of fermentation and storage of the sparkling wine in quiet cold caves excavated in limestone. After the cellars the guests will visit Sitges, a fashionable beach resort in which one can find a unique blend of sophisticated and plain tourism with one of the highest densities of artists per square meter of the Mediterranean Coast.

Artists, such as Rusiñol or Utrillo, already discovered its charm at the end of the XIXth century. The Cau Ferrat Museum, former residence of Rusiñol, and also the Maricel Museum, display beautiful samples of the Catalan modern arts. Lunch in Sitges is included in the tour.

Departure time and place: 10:00h from CCIB

Duration time: approx. seven and a half hours. Lunch included.

Rate: 90,00 € (taxes included)

Minimum: 20 people

*Private bus and official guide speaking English

NOTES:

- Grupo Pacífico does not accept reservations by phone. Reservations must be processed throughout the Online Registration Form.
- 100% payment in euros (€) is required in advanced.
- It is necessary a minimum of 20 reservations for confirming any of the tours.
- Confirmation of definitive tours will be sent by e-mail on June 1st, 2011.
- If any tour could finally not be confirmed due to lack of minimum numbers, it will be offered an alternative tour and a new confirmation will be required before June 15th, 2011. In case of rejection of the alternative tour (before June 15th, 2011) 100% fee will be reimbursed. In case of accepting a more expensive alternative tour, the price difference must be paid before June 15th. In case of accepting a cheaper alternative tour (before June 15th, 2011), the price difference will be reimbursed.
- For payment, invoicing, cancellation and change policy, see Terms and Conditions (page 19).
- Reimbursements will be done from July 25th 2011.